

EDROM LODGE

Edrom lodge is situated amongst the natural beauty of the Far South Coast of NSW. The Lodge is approximately 35kms south of Eden overlooking Twofold Bay with views that stretch from Eden to the mountains beyond.

With many walking tracks in the surrounding area along with some of the most bio-diverse National & State Parks in Southern NSW you can't beat the serenity of this wonderful, historic Lodge. An open log fire will cheer you during winter and the activities in the surrounding area will keep you busy all year round no matter what your interests are.

Edrom Lodge is a 100-year-old Heritage Listed mansion with 12 rooms with bunk bedding. Situated across the bay from Eden, with your own private beach and 20 acres of private gardens and rainforest, makes it suitable for large university and school groups, community groups, family holidays, weddings or business functions.

You will need to bring your own sleeping bags or blankets and linen, food and toiletries. All other facilities are provided including cooking, refrigeration, washing and ironing facilities. Education groups may request our catering service as an inclusive package.

With a wide range of flora, fauna and natural beauty in the surrounding area Edrom Lodge makes a great place to locate yourself to enjoy many different activities.

If you enjoy Bushwalking the many State and National Parks that abound in the area are perfect. Many in close proximity to Edrom Lodge with well established and well maintained walking tracks for all levels of fitness:
